Re: Carper for Senate 2000 Year End Report (9/21/99-12/31/99)
Identification Number: C00349217

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this letter as the reply of Carper for Senate 2000 (the "Committee") to the March 28, 2000 letter issued by Jonathan B. Horton, Reports Analyst, Federal Election Commission. Mr. Horton's letter raised two questions concerning the Committee's year end report. Each question will be addressed below.

Contributions Appearing to Exceed Limits Established by the Act

Mr. Horton questioned the contributions of six (6) individuals as possibly exceeding the limits established by the Act. Please be advised that each contribution has been timely (within 60 days of receipt) reattributed, redesignated or refunded in accordance with the Act. The Committee has copies of the reattribution/redesignation forms, or, in one instance, a copy of the refund check issued to the donor. The Committee intends to itemize these reattributions/redesignations and refund on its April 15 Quarterly Report in accordance with the Act.

Incomplete Names of Certain Political Committees

Mr. Horton questioned the completeness of certain names of political committees, which had made contributions to the Committee. Enclosed please find an Amended Year End Report providing complete names for all political committees. I have only included those pages of the Year End Report which are effected by this amendment.

Kindly return a date-stamped copy of the Amended Year End Report for the Committee's files in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope.
